TO HIRING A CONTRACTOR

A state certified or registered contractor's license is required for the following jobs:

- Roofing work
An unlicensed person is only permitted to "dry in" a structure. Drying-in a structure means the use of tarps, plastic sheeting, or other temporary materials for the sole purpose of preventing further damage to the structure. All permanent repairs must be made by a licensed individual.
- Any plumbing work that requires a permit or is over $1,000 (total contract)
- Any electrical work that requires a permit or is over $1,000 (total contract)
- Any additions or major remodeling jobs
- Major A/C replacement or repair jobs

What to watch out for:

- Construction jobs without a permit posted
- Business names on vehicles without a license number posted
- Contractor vehicles with out-of-state tags
- On-going jobs at hours during which business is not normally performed.

Statutory authority to cite unlicensed contractors, other than electric or alarm contracting:

- Florida Statute 489.127(1) (f) – No person shall engage in the business or act in the capacity of a contractor or advertise himself or a business organization as available to engage in the business or act in the capacity of a contractor without being duly registered or certified or having a certificate of authority.

Statutory penalties for unlicensed contracting:

- Florida Statute 489.127(2)(a) – Any unlicensed person who violates any of the provisions of subsection (1) commits a misdemeanor of the first degree.
- Florida Statute 489.127(2)(c) – Any unlicensed person who commits a violation of subsection (1) during the existence of a state emergency declared by executive order of the governor commits a felony in the third degree.

Note: Electrical contracting has similar regulations. If unlicensed electrical contracting is suspected, please contact anyone from the list below.
