June 4, 2012

Dear Customers:

Effective June 18, 2012, MSC Waterworks is changing our name to Fortiline.

In July of 2010, we made a decision to change and federally register a new name which would allow us to continue to conduct business anywhere in the U.S. Although we registered the name and found no conflicts in our industry sector, we soon faced a legal challenge from a different market sector. As a result, we have agreed to a settlement resulting in a final name change.

Using our vision and goals as a foundation, and working with a nationally recognized name development organization, we took this opportunity to choose a name that not only relates to our heritage - but captures our current culture and vision.

Our Vision: "To be the preferred and most trusted resource for utility infrastructure product solutions"

Fortiline is derived from the Latin word "fortis" for strong and steadfast – a company you can trust and depend on for quality products, responsive service, and advanced solutions. The word "fort" conveys a place or home that provides strong support, while the word "line" connects to the Mainline and Pipeline names and allows employees, customers, and vendors to feel a sense of connection to the legacy brands.

Although our name and logo will be different, our ownership, executive management, and branch personnel will remain the same. All contacts, addresses, and phone numbers will stay the same. However, our website and email addresses will be changing to reflect the new name. These changes will be effective June 18th.

Messages sent to the old email addresses will be forwarded for a brief period of time. If it has not already been given to you, please request updates for any email addresses that you may need from your contacts at our corporate office or your local branches. The format will remain the same: `firstname.lastname@fortiline.com`.

Please note, existing customer accounts will not have to resubmit a new credit application.

We will be using the month of June to transition our forms, checks, letterhead, and other business documents from MSC Waterworks to Fortiline. We ask for your patience during this time. We will do everything we can to communicate with you and accommodate your requests as efficiently as possible.

As always, we would like to extend a sincere thank you for your business and continued support!

Best Regards,

Tim Tysinger
President / CEO

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
