IV. Agenda Items

1. CASE: B19012
OWNER: NEW RIVER TRADING POST LTD
AGENT: Jason Crush, Crush Law, P.A.
ADDRESS: 330 SW 2 STREET #102, FORT LAUDERDALE FL 33301
LEGAL DESCRIPTION: NEW RIVER TRADING POST CONDO UNIT 102 ZONING DISTRICT: RAC-AS COMMISSION DISTRICT: 2
REQUESTING: Requesting a special exception to allow the sale of alcohol at a distance of 221.1 feet from another establishment that sells... alcohol, whereas the Code of Ordinances requires a minimum distance of 300 feet separating establishments that sell alcoholic or intoxicating beverages. This special exception results in a reduction of 78.9 feet from the required 300 feet.

Jason Crush, attorney, described the business, Vegan Fine Foods, which was a restaurant and market. He explained it was within 221.1 feet of Fat Cats, which sold alcoholic beverages.

Per the new code, Mr. Crush explained that the Board could grant special exceptions with the standard that the business was not contrary to the public interest or incompatible with adjoining properties or the surrounding neighborhood. This business was very compatible with the neighborhood, was a desirable use to the community and was an amenity for the arts and entertainment district.

Mr. Crush invited questions.

Chair Reynolds opened the public hearing. There being no members of the public wishing to address the Board on this item, Chair Reynolds closed the public hearing and brought the discussion back to the Board.

Motion made by Ms. Ellis, seconded by Mr. McGinley to approve the special exception. In a roll call vote, motion passed 7-0.
