October 2019 Featured Artist:
Elyse Friedman-Brunt

Elyse is a Broward educator and active environmentalist who rediscovered her childhood passion for photography in 2001. Since then, she has exhibited regularly in Hollywood and Coral Springs. She is an active member of Coral Springs Camera Club. Elyse also coordinated the local entries for the Photographic Society of America Youth Competition for several years.

Elyse loves to travel and capture the essence of the places she visits. She hopes to excite the viewer to truly see the beauty and uniqueness of the world around us and feel the awe that inspires her landscapes. She particularly loves photographing nature and the designs in nature, but also enjoys people and action. Elyse has traveled to both Africa and Guatemala to help promote programs to improve the lives children and families. She also photographs events for local nonprofits such as the National Alliance on Mental Illness and the City of Hollywood.
