CONFERECE MEETING

Amendments to the City's Landscape and Tree Preservation Ordinance
The City Commission, which has expressed concern related to the loss of old growth specimen trees, received an overview of proposed changes to Section 9 and 25 of the Code of Ordinances and Section 47 of the Urban Land Development Regulations. Proposed changes seek to address urban forestry concerns to achieve a simplified and consistent application of the City’s regulations while strengthening tree preservation and preserving community character. Neighbors will have an opportunity to attend an open house meeting to provide input before the amendments are presented to the City Commission. For details, visit bit.ly/32qVO0n.

Crisis and Emergency Communications
The City’s Strategic Communications Office provided an overview of how it strives to communicate effectively in an emergency to help save lives, build credibility and trust, and prevent rumors and misinformation from spreading. The presentation reviewed the benefits of adhering to the National Incident Management System (NIMS) and Incident Command System (ICS), as well as the importance of collaborating between City departments and external partners at the local, state, and federal levels. To support effective communication during future emergencies, City Commissioners discussed best practices to facilitate clear messages across various platforms before, during, and after an emergency. C-51 Reservoir Allocation Purchase
The City Commission discussed long-term water supply needs for the City and agreed to move forward with plans to execute an agreement during an upcoming Regular Commission Meeting reserving 6 million gallons of water per day from the C-51 Reservoir, a regional water supply that is an alternative to the Floridian Aquifer. This agreement includes a one-time capital cost of $27.6 million and a recurring annual operating cost of $219,309. Staff engaged the services of Hazen and Sawyer to evaluate options for alternative water supply sources, which revealed that among the benefits of purchasing C-51 water are: lowering the City’s carbon footprint, increasing utilization of raw water resources, and maximizing diversification of water sources. REGULAR MEETING

A Partner Two Movies and One Meal Away
The City Commission warmly welcomed a presentation by Her Excellency, The Honorable Rosemary Banks, New Zealand Ambassador to the United States of America. Ambassador Banks explained that despite physical distance, the two countries are alike in terms of shared values and appreciation of a democratic way of life. She provided a snapshot of the bilateral relationship between the U.S. and New Zealand with examples that included New Zealand’s longstanding support of U.S. armed forces, a shared concern about the various challenges faced by the islands in the Pacific region, and the opportunity to establish a more robust trade and economic relationship. Recently, gun violence tragedies strengthened the social relationship between her city and the South Florida community due to the outpouring of love and support from each in response to the shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School and the Christchurch mosque shootings. Her Excellency’s presentation concluded with observations about the striking similarities shared by New Zealand and Florida in terms of total coast line, enthusiasm for the marine industry, and yacht club heritage.
